(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)

HELSINGFORS, July 31.—The artillery has joined the Sveaborg mutineers, but the infantry remained loyal. The artillery trained guns on the loyalists, killing or wounding five hundred. Officers and their families rushed into this city.

HELSINGFORS, July 31.—The most serious mutiny within the Russian empire since the dissolution of the douma occurred today at the Sveaborg fortress which guards the harbor of this city.

The soldiers ashore and sailors of the fleet were affected.

The garrison mutinied and the older troops were called out to quell the mutineers. A fight ensued between the two factions.

The mutineers succeeded in seizing the fortress. The sailors refuse to fire on the soldiers who now control the fleet.

Social democratic privates of the Finnish red guard proclaimed a general strike.

Labor agitators have gone into the provinces to stir up the people.

The mutiny began among the snappers last night and there was a recurrence this morning. The mutineers imprisoned the officers and elected leaders to fill their places.

The rebels now hold half the fortress and all the naval arsenal. A Russian torpedo boat destroyer is bombarding the mutineers' barracks.

The mutineers killed one officer and wounded one.

RELATIVES THINK WIDOW OF SAGE WILL COMPROMISE

NEW YORK, July 31.—The relatives of the late Russell Sage apparently hope to force Mrs. Sage into a compromise, under threats of tying up the $70,000,000 estate in the courts for a number of years. As Mrs. Sage has but a few years in which to distribute the $70,000,000 to charity, they hope she will settle with them out of court and pay them not to contest. Each one of the twenty-five relatives wants about $2,000,000, according to reports.

This tentative program for forcing the executors to pay out more than the stipulated $25,000 to the heirs was divulged today by Attorney A. Welles Stump, son-in-law of Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Geer, one of the beneficiaries. Mr. Stump did not say which of the heirs or how many of them he represented.

Edison to Build Mansions for Song by Moulding With Liquid Cement

NEW YORK, July 31.—Whole houses molded in a single casting out of solid concrete, which will provide cozy homes for workmen at a cost of from $500 to $600—much less than the average mechanic pays today—is the goal which Thomas A. Edison is striving to reach. He is confident of success. Combined with economy of construction and maintenance the inventor aims to embody architectural beauty and practical indestructibility.

Mr. Edison intends to make his first practical experiments next year in his new village in Warren county, N. J. One of the big Edison industrial establishments is situated there, and he proposes to erect the homes by the new process for the families of the hundreds of employees of the plant. If he succeeds in demonstrating the practicability of the scheme he will introduce it generally.

He already has conceived every detail of the project. Four days at the outside is the period Edison estimates will be necessary to cast and turn out whole houses with from eight to ten rooms each, complete in almost every detail and ready to be furnished and carpeted. The actual time for pumping the concrete into the metallic molds will be only a few hours, and the rest of the time will be consumed in drying out and hardening. Whole cities of concrete may be reared in the brief period of four days, if only enough molds and men are provided.

Mr. Edison thinks that the time is near when the world must find some substitute for brick and timber. The yellow pine forests of the United States will be destroyed within fifty years if the present drain upon them is maintained.

Describing the plan in detail Edison said: "The first step will be to employ an architect to design, say, a dozen dwelling houses of different patterns. I purpose to have metallic molds made to correspond. The mold for each house will be made in detachable parts. There will be separate plates and small molds that can be screwed together easily to form one mold for an entire house. That a fine finish may be obtained, the inside surfaces of the parts will be tickled plated.

"After the mold for the whole house is set up it will be a simple matter to pump the concrete into every nook and cranny. After four days the parts of the mold will be unscrewed and taken off and the solid concrete house will remain."

Edison says the plan will be carried out in such detail that dormer windows, chimneys, spouts, and ornamental designs will be molded with the whole and that inside cupboards, fireplaces, stairways with ornamental banisters, mantel pieces, and even bathtubs will be formed in the cast in which the house proper will be made.

The house will be so complete that when the mold is removed the installation of electric wires, window sashes, etc., will be all that will be necessary before the furnishes and carpet layers may go to work. Even the plumbing and gas piping will be of concrete and molded in the original cast.

As a practical demonstration of what may be accomplished by the process Edison has built a complete chicken house in his back yard, molded in one solid piece out of concrete. It has many compartments and doorways and decorated cornices of intricate design.

The original cost of each mold, with all its component parts, the inventor estimates at $25,000. From each mold, however, he says an unlimited number of houses may be produced. Because the parts of the mold are to be detachable it will be portable and one mold may be sent with little difficulty from town to town. About ninety houses could be built in one year by the use of a single mold, at a cost of from $500 to $600 apiece.

Resume of Wisconsin Situation Says Fight is on La Follette

MADISON, Wis., July 30.—Robert M. La Follette is again the issue in Wisconsin.

He has assumed the role of dictator. He has named his political legate and has told his followers that they must nominate this man for governor. To him he wants entrusted the task of carrying on the work in Wisconsin while he is in the United States senate carrying on the national propaganda, which he hopes will land him in the White house.

The result has been a split in the La Follette ranks. At the present time the split looks dangerous—so dangerous, in fact, that many of his closest followers believe the campaign just opening will be the fight of his life. They confidently predict, however, that Senator La Follette will win, and that he will have his way, and that the man he has selected for the republican nomination for governor, Ervine L. Lenroot, will be nominated.

That Senator La Follette believes his leadership in the state is threatened seriously is evidenced by the fact that he has announced that he will enter the campaign early next month in behalf of Lenroot's candidacy in a whirlwind tour of the state. He denies he is wrongfully interfering in state affairs, and claims he has the right of any citizen of the state under the new primary law to take part in the campaign and present all the facts concerning the fitness of the man he has told his followers they should accept as their nominee.

Many of the prominent "half-breed" leaders of the state who have followed La Follette faithfully for years in his many fights in Wisconsin refuse to take this view of the former governor's interference in state affairs. They regard him as a dictator, as being inconsistent in thus presuming to control their actions, and point to his previous utterances against the domination of federal office holders in state affairs.

This feeling is deep and comes from within the organization that has stood behind him heretofore without a murmur of protest. La Follette is as uncompromising in his attitude toward his former lieutenants as he is toward his old enemies, the stalwarts, and this has brought about a bitterness of feeling that threatens to be continued after the primary fight and into the election next November.

But La Follette is determined to take it to the last ditch. That is La Follette. He never placates. He goes out and fights, and his insurgent followers know this perhaps better than any one else. It all depends upon La Follette. If he still maintains his marvelous hold on the rank and file in Wisconsin he will win, and Lenroot will be nominated for governor, at the primaries. And most of the disinterested judges of political affairs in Wisconsin say that La Follette is stronger than ever in the state.

But there is no denying the fact that the split in the ranks of the half-breeds is serious. A strong faction of the administration, led by Governor Davidson, to whom La Follette has denied the chance of succeeding himself, is opposed to the senator's dictatorial domination. With Davidson is W. D. Connor, state chairman of the La Follette machine.

Former Governor W. D. Hoard has come out for Davidson and criticized La Follette for his action in demanding the nomination of Lenroot. Isaac Stephenson, the millionaire lumberman of Marinette, Senator La Follette's chief backer, has shown a decided lukewarmness to the Lenroot program, and his newspaper, the Mil-

S.S.S. FOR THE BLOOD

The demand for S. S. S. has steadily increased since it was first placed on the market until it is now recognized as the greatest of all blood purifiers. It has won its way to success because IT CURES DISEASE, and there are few homes where "S. S. S. for the blood" is not a household saying. As the blood is the very life of the body, nourishing and supplying strength to every part, disease in some form is sure to follow when it becomes contaminated. Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Boils, Pimples and the various skin affections are due to an over-acid and impure blood-supply. Rheumatism, Catarrh, Scrofula, Chronic Sores and Ulcers, Contagious Blood Poison, etc., are all deep-seated blood diseases and will continue to grow worse and more dangerous as long as the impurities and poisons which produce them remain in the blood. In all blood disorders S. S. S. has proven itself a perfect remedy, and well earned the right to be called the greatest of all blood purifiers. It goes down into the circulation and forces out all poisons, impurities, humors, and unhealthy matter, and makes this life-stream rich, pure and health-sustaining. S. S. S. reaches inherited blood taints and so enriches the circulation that diseases of years standing are permanently cured. It contains no harmful minerals and is nature's real blood purifier. Book on the blood and medical advice free. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

ROB A DETECTIVE

DES MOINES, Ia., July 31.—A local "fly-cop" was not "fly" enough for the smooth-fingered artist he was arresting, and had his own pocket picked.

Detective W. D. Sims, after a raid with a number of other detectives on a gang of tramps in the railroad yards, on touching his inside pocket found his purse missing.

"Well, I'll be switched if one of that bunch hasn't touched me. My purse is gone."

The purse was found on the floor amidst the prisoners at the central police station. The contents had not been molested.

Dr. George Powell, consulting physician and surgeon.

OSHKOSH MAYOR IS CITED FOR CON- TEMPT

OSHKOSH, Wis., July 31.—Attachments in contempt were issued late yesterday afternoon by Judge George W. Burnell of the circuit court for John Banderob, mayor of this city; John C. Voss, president of the council; Walter Marden, president of the board of public works; William Rasmussen, a local contractor; and N. C. Draper, general manager of the Eastern Wisconsin Railway & Light company. Under the orders of arrest the defendants are directed to appear in circuit court Aug. 25 and answer to the charge of contempt of court.

The defendants, it is alleged, laid a street car track on Main street June 16 and 17 in violation of an injunction obtained on the former date by the Winnebago Traction company of this city.

The Eastern Wisconsin company and the traction company are fighting for rights in lower Main street and the officials, becoming wearied of having the street open and impassable, laid the tracks as directed by the common council.

PORK UNFIT TO EAT ANY TIME

SHENANDOAH, Pa., July 31.—Arguing against the unsanitary practice of keeping hogs within the borough, Dr. William N. Stein, president of the Shenandoah board of health declared at a meeting of that body that pork is not fit for human consumption on the ground that "the hog not only wallows in filth, but gobbles up garbage and offal. The hog is a cannibal and if I had my way I would go around with a shotgun, kill every hog in the town, and consign its carcass to the fertilizer."

Peter Keogh took issue with the doctor. He was spokesman for several dealers in swine who received five days' notice to get rid of their hogs under penalty of fine and confiscation. Under the borough ordinance, 250 hogs being fattened for slaughter in fall have been confiscated.

Keogh said the hogs kept the fourth ward in a sanitary condition by consuming garbage and kitchen offal thrown into the streets.

A MYSTERIOUS SHOOTING

HASTINGS, Neb., July 31.—"Barney" Pearson, a well known western horseman, was arrested yesterday by Sheriff McCreary to await developments in a shooting affray which occurred at his home early this morning. Walter McCullough, another horseman, was the victim. He was shot in the back. A charge of buckshot was fired through a window and hit McCullough when he was standing near Mrs. Pearson. It is thought McCullough will die.

ANOTHER WONDER OF SCIENCE.

Biology has Proved that Dandruff is Caused by a Germ.

Science is doing wonders these days in medicine as well as in mechanics. Since Adam lived, the human race has been troubled with dandruff, for which no hair preparation has heretofore proved a successful cure until Newbro's Herpicide was put on the market. It is a scientific preparation that kills the germ that makes dandruff or scurf by digging into the scalp to get at the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality, causing itching scalp, falling hair, and finally baldness. Without dandruff hair must grow luxuriantly. It is the only destroyer of dandruff. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Jeweler Snared Into Country and Slain

MADISON, Wis., July 31.—Joseph Bardenheier, the Madison jeweler who disappeared a week ago, was murdered and robbed. His badly decomposed body was found yesterday in a woodlot belonging to William Gay in the town of Blooming Grove, about four miles from the city. Even though the tragedy was enacted a week ago, evidence of the death struggle with the robbers is still plain. For a distance of about fifty yards through the woods the underbrush is torn and broken, indicating a running battle with occasional stops where the fight was hand to hand.

Clarence Ward, a farm hand, found the body. He detected a strong odor of decaying flesh when he was passing along the road near the woods, and this led him to look over the woods, where he discovered the body. He did not stop to examine, but ran to the Dempsey farmhouse and telephoned to the police. The body was stripped of everything of value, including $2 in money, silver watch and gold chain, and a gold stick pin.

The head of the murdered man was covered with a piece of sack. The body was lying face down about six feet from the road fence, and between it and the road were some hazel bushes, cutting off the view from the road. The body was brought to Madison and is in the possession of Coroner M. W. Lynch.

Bardenheier was 42 years old. He came here from Chicago a few months ago and established a retail jewelry and watch repairing business. He was about six feet tall and weighed 326 pounds. A supposed farmer came to the store and tried to sell vegetables, butter and eggs. He said he had a large clock at home that was in need of repairs, but he could not bring it to the city. An engagement was made for Bardenheier to go to the farm. He was directed to go to the end of the street car line, where a buggy would be waiting. It is believed by the police that the supposed farmer was a tramp or member of a party of thugs, that this fellow led Bardenheier through the woods where the gang attacked and killed him.

SUIT MAY MAKE MRS. SNELL RICH

RACINE, Wis., July 31.—Clarence J. Richards of this city, trustee for creditors of Mrs. Grace Snell-Coffin-Walker-Layman-Love of Los Angeles, Cal., began suit in the United States district court of Illinois against Frank L. Salisbury, Homer M. Thomas and A. D. Adeock and others, trustees of the estate of Henrietta Snell of Chicago. It is in the form of an ejectment and it is sought to recover real estate now claimed by the trustees.

The real estate involved is worth over $1,000,000 and if the present suit is successful all of the estate will become subject to litigation. It is claimed that the property was to be bequeathed to Mrs. Snell by her husband, previous to his murder by William Tascot, over fifteen years ago; that she never got a title to the property.

The plaintiff is seeking to enforce the rights of Mrs. Love in this land on the ground that on the death of her father she inherited a one-third interest in it, and in turn the trustees will claim that it will not stand in a contest in court.

Creditors of Mrs. Love are said to be not numerous. Her interest in the property, if the suit is successful, will amount to several hundred thousand dollars and it will work a destruction to the claims under which the trustees under the will now set up to this property.

DEPUTY'S WOUND IS NOT SERI- OUS ONE

HAYWARD, Wis., July 31.—John Rogish of Milwaukee, a member of Sheriff Gylland's posse who was shot during an attack on John Dietz at the Thornapple dam, was brought to Hayward on the afternoon train. According to County Physician Storey, who is attending the wounded man, his wounds are not serious. The doctor says, however, that the result of the man's exposure during the time he was in the woods without attention, may bring on serious complications.

CURSE LAWYER WHO TRIES TO FREE THEM

VALDOSTA, Ga., July 31.—With their execution fixed for next Friday and with the triple gallows being erected within sound of their cells, J. G. Rawlings, a former Methodist preacher, and his two sons, who are under sentence of death for the murder of two Carter children because of a feud with their father, broke into anathemas yesterday when told that their attorney probably would succeed in having the executions postponed.

"I hope he will be stricken dead in his tracks," shrieked Rawlings. "I am anxious to be hanged and be done with it. I don't want to be sent to the penitentiary."

Milton and Jesse, his sons, agreed with their father.

"I don't want a pardon," broke in Milton. "I would rather be hanged than sent to the penitentiary for life."

Rawlings Sr. then remarked that he was doomed to eternal punishment in the next world anyhow and might as well go at once.

THE AUDITORIUM NEED

The saengerfest of 1908 is to come to La Crosse, and again we have before us the problem of an auditorium. It is a real problem. It is doubtful whether a building of that sort would at once become a profitable investment in a city of this size. As the city grows, and the demand increases its revenues will increase, but future possibilities don't pay the interest on present investments.

An auditorium is one of those things a city needs a long time before it gets it. And cities usually get their auditoriums as the result of an urgent crisis. Perhaps the coming saengerfest is the climax of need that will give La Crosse its auditorium. The matter is sure to command serious attention, and a way of solving the riddle may be found.

Down in Milwaukee they are gathering funds to erect a $250,000 auditorium. It is being accomplished by subscription. More than three-fifths of the required sum has been raised. La Crosse will not need an expensive building, although it should be made ample for years to come. The most inexpensive sort of substantial construction could be used, and the property could be exempted from taxation by the city. Reduced to a minimum, the thing may be among the possibilities. The ownership of the building should be represented in shares of stock issued to patrons of the plan in proportion to their contributions.

THE POINTING HAND

There never was a movement sobroad that some few men did not represent it to all. We are not apt to emphasize the value of epoch-making men. We see the epoch, and hold the men, the real forces that created the epoch, as emblematic rather than the creative impulse.

And so, today, we are pleased with Mr. Bryan, because he "represents the spirit of the times." We do not do him the justice, perhaps, to realize that he and a few other daring adventurers upon the frontier of present day American politics, actually originated the "spirit of the times" by educating more and more men to an appreciation of certain facts neither complimentary nor tolerable to the republic.

Bryan, the pioneer. La Follette, Cummins, Roosevelt, Folk, Dineen, the bordermen who followed the first trail he blazed. A body of men representing a political jumble but with definite common purposes. Mr. Bryan will be the democratic presidential nominee. President Roosevelt, he says and some believe, will decline to run against the Nebraskan. Who, then, in the republican party can oppose him? A liberal, an exponent of the things that Roosevelt stands for, but even more progressive if possible—thus answer the men of the west. No "Uncle Joes" for ours!

And the hand of fate, and the fingers of discerning men, and the comment of newspapers in every section of the country, are pointing to Senator R. M. La Follette, of Wisconsin. Nowadays there is an "if" in it. "If Roosevelt don't run—" But later, probably, that "if" will be eliminated, for Senator La Follette needs no apologists for being in the running. Republicans of the progressive sort, everywhere, are beginning to understand the "spirit of the times," and some of the people are beginning to understand that he is no less than second in the forward group that created the "spirit of the times." This feeling is illustrated by the following comment from the New York Press:

Col. William Hester, president of the Brooklyn Eagle association, says there will be a powerful demand for the renomination of Mr. Roosevelt, because, with "Mr. Roosevelt out Mr. Bryan could make use of his old claim as being the champion of the 'plain people' successfully, but Mr. Roosevelt has stolen all of that thunder away from him and Mr. Roosevelt would figure as the liberal leader. Mr. Bryan would have to lead the conservatives, a role he would not fit."

Col. Hester shares the belief of most good Americans that President Roosevelt meant exactly what he said when he declared that he would not be a candidate again, but he does not think that the third-term prospect has any terror for the American people in this age. It is not unlikely, therefore, he implies, that the president's party will insist upon a renomination, for the reason that many prominent republicans are convinced that no one but Roosevelt can beat Bryan.

But if Mr. Roosevelt adheres to his determination not to accept another nomination "under any circumstances," what then? In the republican party there are not many public men who have approached Mr. Roosevelt's attitude of standing as the champion of the "plain people." Senator La Follette, however, has supported the Roosevelt program more vigorously than any one else in the public view. In addition, he has done successfully for his own state of Wisconsin several things which the president has unsuccessfully striven to accomplish for the nation. On the theory of Col. Hester that to win the nominee of the republican party must be a liberal or a radical, it would seem to be either Roosevelt or La Follette.

AS TO OIL AND OFFICIAL DUTY

The aldermen of the common council of La Crosse are not immediately interested in the arrest, conviction and punishment of John D. Rockefeller. That is, they are not more immediately interested than are citizens of La Crosse, and of anywhere, who are not aldermen. They have no "official" view of the affair.

But the La Crosse aldermen are immediately and vitally interested in the removal of Standard Oil's tanks from their present unsafe position near a city park where people congregate and surrounded by factories costing much money and filled with employees. There has never been before the city council a duty more imperative than the immediate removal of those tanks.

It is silly for Standard Oil people to assure the public that there is no danger, that the tanks are all right where they are. To say an explosion is impossible is as dishonest and un-Christian as it is to say that an explosion would be harmless. In almost every issue of every newspaper there is some item about death and destruction due to an explosion of oil lamps, oil stoves or oil tanks. In the aggregate millions of dollars have been lost, and hundreds if not thousands of lives have been snuffed out every year. Were there no danger, there would be no precautions against danger. It was all very well to put the tanks where they are before there was a public park there, and before those expensive buildings and thriving industries surrounded the spot. But the time to remove the tanks has come, and as by pinching off the corners a little Standard Oil can "afford it." The Rockefeller company should be immediately ordered to vacate the premises.

You are a Time-merchant; the working hours of your day are your stock-in-trade. You must find the best market possible for the hours you have to sell—for they are worth more to one buyer than to another, and only want advertising will find the one man to whom they are worth most of all.

Is it not funny how The Chronicle condemns Mayor Johnson of Cleveland and Woodsman Dietz for breaking the law. There are places nearer home where the law seems to have sustained a fracture, according to that complaint.

It won't hurt to remember that O. R. Skaar is a candidate for the assembly, and Mr. Skaar represents the liberal politics of the day as truly as any man in La Crosse.

The Hon. Nathan W. Hale, Congressman Second Tennessee District—Dear Sir: I want to urge upon you the necessity for a national law prohibiting women from wearing "peek-a-boo" shirt waists, corsets, and from putting powder and paint on the face. Editors, jokesmiths, and W. C. T. U. members and others have spoken against the peekaboo shirt waist, and the corset, and medical authorities say that powder injures the complexion as well as frequently fools a man.

"Low Dockstader, the minstrel, sounded the purpose of the peekaboo shirt waist when he declared that a man cannot look a woman in the face if the woman is wearing one of those attractive 'medallion peekaboos.' You might draft your bill so that the provisions as to corsets may apply to men also, since some Chicago men are said to have adopted the corset to improve their shape. Your bill should not apply to 'V' cut shirt waists, and you should make it read so as to except from corset restrictions persons weighing over 200 pounds. You might also provide that men over 40 years of age can use powder.

CHLOROFORM MEN AND KIDNAP WOMAN

CENTRALIA, Ill., July 31.—Almost in sight of scores of guests attending a birthday party a daring attempt was made last night to kidnap Mrs. Oliver George. With others Mrs. George had spent the evening at the home of Alderman and Mrs. Wiley Adams. She was leaving the house to join her husband when, she says, a man seized her and pressed a handkerchief saturated with chloroform over her face.

The woman recovered consciousness in time to hear a man say: "Let her go; they are coming after us." She found herself in a field nearly half a mile from the Adams home and near her own.

She is not able to give a description of her abductors, and the affair is a mystery.

CONFEDERATE VET, THOUGHT DEAD, REAPPEARS

CARTERSVILLE, Ga., July 31.—

After three years spent in fighting for the south and forty years in a northern prison for killing a prison official, Anderson Pittman reached here yesterday to find he had been regarded as dead since the battle of Chickamauga and that the wife of his youth was the widow of another man. Pittman's wife knew him instantly.

Instead of being killed at Chickamauga, Pittman was captured and confined until after the close of the Civil war. When released he killed Colonel Sanford for flogging him on his last day in prison. Pittman was convicted and was given a sentence of forty years in the New York prison.

Pittman returned to a comfortable home, the property which he owned when he enlisted having greatly enhanced in value.

INDIANA CORPORATIONS $16,000,- 000 RICHER

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 31.—

The property appraisement of Indiana corporations for 1906, as made by the state board of tax commissioners, shows an increase of approximately $16,000,000 over the valuation for 1905.

Of this amount $12,000,000 is due to increased valuation of steam railroads. The remainder of the increase is distributed among electric lines, telephone and telegraph companies, express companies, pipe line companies and other small corporations. There are comparatively no reductions in the appraisements of 1905.

Both the Postal and Western Union Telegraph companies' rate of assessment per mile was increased $415. The Adams Express company's rate was increased from $348 a mile to $657, by far the greatest increase among express companies. The Louisville and Jeffersonville Bridge company shows the greatest valuation and the largest increase. Its appraisement on main line property in 1905 was $125,000. This year it is raised to $700,000.

The reports of the railroads show increased mileage. The Indiana Harbor railroad, which last year had but 4.86 miles of main track, this year shows 101.6 miles. The state tax board has now finished its work on corporations, after having been in session for several weeks.

GAMBLERS OF CHIP- PEWA FALLS FINED

CHIPPEWA FALLS, Wis., July 31.—

Owners of gambling resorts raided by Sheriff Lund and deputies last week were convicted yesterday. Each was fined $115 and costs. The complaining witness was Robert Felber, a prominent business man, who testified that he had lost large sums of money in these resorts. The gambling paraphernalia was ordered burned publicly on the courthouse square.

WISCONSIN TOBACCO SELLS AT RECORD FIGURES NOW

Scarcity of Crop and Presence of Tobacco Trust Buyers Cause for Big Advance in Prices

Wisconsin tobacco this year will reach the highest price ever offered in the history of the industry in this state, say local traders who deal in the Wisconsin product. At the present time prices ranging from 15 to 16 cents a pound in the field are offered, with the probability that the price will be higher.

Scarcity of the tobacco crop in all the tobacco producing centers of both the United States and Cuba has caused the exceedingly high prices. The Wisconsin crop is said to have suffered severely from a hail storm that prevailed in Rock county on Friday and Saturday. Several hundred acres of tobacco was ruined, it is said.

Highest Prices in History
Wisconsin tobacco is used almost exclusively for cigars, and consumers of the fragrant weed may look for an advance in the price of their luxuries, according to C. K. Reichert, of Reichert & La Boule, who deal in Wisconsin tobacco to a considerable extent.

"Wisconsin tobacco will bring the highest price in the history of the industry," said Mr. Reichert. Buyers are now offering from 15 to 16 cents a pound for the crop in the field. This is an increase of from 2 to 3 cents over last year's prices.

"Scarcity of the crop is attributable to the advance in prices. Rock county, one of the most important centers of the tobacco growing industry of Wisconsin, was visited by a severe hail storm last week that ruined several hundred acres of the crop. Rock, Dale, Vernon and La Crosse counties the principle tobacco centers of this state.

Trust Early in the Field

"Because of the scarcity of the crop the tobacco trust has been early in the field for the output, and this fact has contributed to the advance in prices. We shall deal but little in Wisconsin tobacco this year because of the high price. The majority of our tobacco will be secured from Connecticut, where 26 cents is paid for the crop. This price seems high, and it is high, but not so very much when the quality of the Connecticut product with that of Wisconsin is considered.

"The average yield of tobacco in Wisconsin is 42,000,000 pounds, which is worth over $6,000,000. The increase in the price of Wisconsin tobacco is about 5 cents a pound since 1888. At that time Wisconsin tobacco was offered for 10 cents a pound."

JOHN D. WAS A KID WHILE ABROAD

CLEVELAND, O., July 30.—Dr. H. F. Biggar, who accompanied John D. Rockefeller on his trip abroad, returned home today full of anecdotes of the journey.

Dr. Biggar told numerous stories about the oil magnate. While in Compiegne, France, he expressed a desire to inspect the markets. The mayor and the city officials of the town had arranged to escort him through. Rockefeller surprised the party by getting up at 7 in the morning, and inspecting them alone. When the party assembled they saw him coming up the street with a basket of greens, which later were served to the guests.

Dr. Biggar also told how Rockefeller played with a child of a peasant in the little town in France trying to teach it English. Later he wheeled the child about the streets.

INDUSTRIAL EXHIBIT LIKELY TO FAIL

The proposed industrial fair which was suggested as a means to advertise home manufactures will, to all present indications, fall through.

The Manufacturers and Jobbers' union is not showing the interest necessary to make this a success. While they have not exactly turned down the proposition, a postponement a few weeks ago was taken by some as a refusal.

It is maintained by the manufacturers that the benefit derived from such an exhibition would be not great inasmuch as the trade from the home town is comparatively small.

"The attitude of the manufacturers on this proposition is not well defined," said a member of their union, "but I do know the feeling, and while I will not predict that the plan of holding the exposition will fall through, I cannot say the chances of holding it are bright."

LANDS A BIG ONE

HAYWARD, Wis., July 31.—Judge Bailey caught the champion muscullonge of the season in Sand lake, after a desperate contest. The fish weighed forty-five pounds before being cleaned. After cleaning it weighed thirty-eight pounds.

The judge was after bass when the monster took the hook. After playing him for a couple of hours, until he was almost worn out, the judge got the fish on a sandbar, where he lay "all in."

The fish was sent to a taxidermist in Duluth to be mounted and will soon be on exhibition.

GIVES BIRTH TO A FISH CULTURIST CHILD ON FAST TRAIN

Early this morning, while the train was running at a good rate of speed toward the station of Corliss, near Milwaukee, an immigrant woman en route west and whose name could not be learned, gave birth to a child. The train which is due here at 3 o'clock, arrived a little late.

HUSBAND CHASES WIFE WHO TAKES BOY, IN AUTO

NEW YORK, July 30.—Mr. and Mrs. Guy C. Van Alstyne of Argyle road, Flatbush, agreed to differ some months ago, and Mrs. Van Alstyne took up her residence alone last October at the Martha Washington hotel. Their one child, Darcy, 3 years old, remained with the father. It was agreed, however, that once a week he should spend a day with his mother.

Mrs. Van Alstyne left the nurse in her rooms yesterday and took the boy downstairs, saying she was going to treat him to ice cream. Instead, she jumped into an automobile with him and disappeared.

When the father learned of this four hours later he sent for his own automobile. He assumed that his wife was somewhere in New Jersey, but he had little to guide him in his search. Tonight he was still on the trail, and at last accounts was no nearer his wife than when he started.

Mrs. Van Alstyne was Miss Mabel Cooper, a member of the Brooklyn family of Coopers. She has been married five years, and, it is said, she has been contemplating bringing suit for divorce and wanted to get the custody of the child before the papers were filed.

"UNCLE JOE" HEARS HYMNS AT DINNER

RUSHVILLE, Ind., July 30.—"Uncle Joe" Cannon, speaker of the house of representatives, was the guest of James E. Watson, his "whip," last night. "Uncle Joe" suggested his fondness for old time religious hymns, and a long service was arranged immediately.

Church choirs were depicted by the committee on entertainment, and the best talent in the city hurried to the home of the Hon. J. K. Gowdy to sing for the statesman.

Elaborate preparations are being made to entertain Mr. Cannon during his stay here. According to the present plans he will remain several days.

He will mix business with pleasure, and with Mr. Watson will arrange the details of the speaking tour, which will carry him and the Sixth district congressman all over the union. It is whispered in political circles here that "Uncle Joe" will assist Watson in getting in line the band of insurgents led by Charles Hernley, who openly declared recently that he would not vote for the republican candidate in the Sixth, and that he would exert his influence to bring about his defeat. When asked for an interview the speaker declined to make any statement, other than that he was on a little pleasure trip.

THINK BURLINGTON BURNED REBATE EVIDENCES

OMAHA, Neb., July 31.—It is believed a federal investigation of the burning by officials of the Burlington railroad of two carloads of records containing what is declared to have been incriminating evidence regarding rebate practices will be undertaken at once.

The cars were in charge of two trusted employees of the road. Though none of the officials would admit today that they knew anything about the matter, it is known that fault was found with these men for not remaining with the cars until the last vestige of paper was destroyed.

It is stated that several letters were picked up by a young farmer, one of which was signed by W. W. Johnson, assistant general freight agent, addressed to Edward Clark, claim agent for the road. It is said it states specifically that the Burlington has an agreement with John Stewart of Concordia, Kas., to refund one-third of the charges on all shipments which he moved from points within Kansas.

Burlington officials in Chicago yesterday denied having any knowledge of the burning of two carloads of the road's records and rebate correspondence near Greeley Center, Neb. The railroad men said that they had seen only what appeared in the morning papers.

"It is the custom with all roads to destroy their records at certain intervals," said G. H. Crosby, freight traffic manager of the road. "They become so voluminous that it is impossible to keep them. I would hardly think, though, that the Burlington road would do it in this way. There is no reason why we should send the papers to a remote siding to be burned."

President George B. Harris said he could throw no light on the matter.

"I simply saw the newspaper headlines," he said. "I know absolutely nothing about the matter."

Mrs. G. F. Goodman will leave today for her home in Salt Lake City after a visit with her mother, Mrs. Angelina Winters.

KING EDWARD AND QUEEN MAY COME TO AMERICA

LONDON, July 31.—There is a possibility that King Edward and Queen Alexandra may visit the United States, unofficially of course, next year.

It is one of the dearest wishes of both to see some of the modern wonders of America. They have practically seen the rest of the world. The visit to the United States, if made, would come after their visit to Canada next year, and that visit is almost a certainty.

The Canadian parliament's official invitation has been followed by personal requests made by some of the great men both of Canada and England, and it is understood that King Edward is very favorably inclined to go. The queen, although of a similar mind, does not like the sea voyage, but it is thought she will agree to go because of her anxiety to see some of the United States afterward.

The king and queen, of course, will travel to Canada in royal state, accompanied by a whole fleet of warships and by many private yachts. After making the tour of Canada, they will go to Rideau hall, Ottawa, for a two weeks' rest, or ostensibly a rest. In reality, as the earl and countess of Chester, and with a small suite, they will travel in the United States.

The visit, while it will be incognito, will be fairly public, and on this account the British ambassador at Washington has already made inquiries of the state department whether such visit will be agreeable to the United States government.

If the visit is made the United States secret service, as well as the European police, who will accompany the king, will guard him and the queen every moment in as quiet a manner as possible.

President Roosevelt will entertain the royal couple at the White house, and they will also stop, not at hotels, but at the homes of prominent Americans who are identified with the English court. In Washington they will reside at the British embassy.

WOULD RATHER CULTIVATE CROP THAN BE U.S. SENATOR

TOPEKA, Kas., July 30.—When Foster Dwight Coburn declined appointment as United States senator from Kansas two stories were told in explanation of his surprising modesty. Both, his friends say, were correct.

The real reason, according to the same authorities, for Mr. Coburn's refusal to accept a place in the upper house of the national legislature was his unwillingness to desert a sunflower crop in which he is far more deeply interested than in law-making or Washington politics.

Mr. Coburn himself said he didn't want to go to the senate because he couldn't bear to associate with politicians. The politicians replied that he was afraid to go because he considered Senator Burton's seat unlucky, and didn't want to take the hoodoo on his own shoulders.

It seems Mr. Coburn has been experimenting with sunflowers for a long time. Kansans have never been able to find a use for them hitherto. To be sure, they are the state's floral emblem. Most farmers, however, have regarded them as little better than the commonest kind of weeds.

Mr. Coburn is secretary of the Kansas state board of agriculture. He has an idea that the sunflower is useful, and that the seeds should be marketable, and that it is "up to" him to ascertain to what use they can be put. He has been conducting a series of experiments for some time, and couldn't afford to have them interrupted by a trip to Washington.

In the winter he will ask the two Kansas agricultural experiment stations to take up sunflower culture, to determine the best varieties of the flower, the proper method of cultivation to obtain the best results, the uses for which the seeds are suitable, and the easiest way to put them on the market.

GOWN GOSSIP.

Quite narrow stitched bolts of the material are found on many of the gingham and linen shirt waists and coat suits.

The separate skirt, although it has been superseded by the shirt suit, is nevertheless shown in a number of attractive models, and its popularity is not likely to expire with the summer.

Corsets are no longer the instruments of torture they originally were, even those bought from the stock in the shops, while a corset made to order and worn as a conscientious fitter has designed it is distinctly helpful.

Shadow embroidery is being carried to the fine china silks, both for corset covers and for waists, and doubtless will retain its popularity through the fall season, as worn over colored slips the shadow work shows up excellently.

Some exquisite house and reception gowns, serviceable now and for fall, are fashioned out of those new shades of diaphanous chiffon, lava gray, mountain blue and indescribable tint between blue and steel gray, Indian tea and an opalescent tint that is unnamed.—New York Post.

INDUSTRIAL ITEMS.

The administrator of the colony of St. Lucia reports that the cotton experiments there resulted in a failure to cover expenses.

In 1900 there were 109 concerns in the United States manufacturing automobiles, with an investment of $5,000,000. In 1905 about $40,000,000 was the investment in plants.

By a secret method a London firm is able to make hollow lead soldiers. This greatly reduces the cost of production, and the trade in these toys, which once belonged almost exclusively to Germany, is now rapidly increasing in England. The weight of the hollow soldier is one-third of the solid.

New England, which has a very large box business, including all forms of packing boxes, uses annually about 492,000,000 feet of white pine lumber in making them, and there are also used 50,000,000 feet of spruce, 25,000,000 feet of hemlock and over 20,000,000 feet of other woods in the same business.

THE ROYAL BOX.

Alfonso of Spain has a personal salary of $750,000. His queen has been granted $80,000 a year for her individual use.

Kaiser Wilhelm has a violent dislike for cats, and it is believed in Berlin that he instigated the ordinance which puts a tax on felines of the capital.

When King Edward is about to take a railway journey his majesty is invariably consulted as to the speed at

FASHION NOTES.

Riding Habits For the Girl Who Stits Astride—Chiffon Bows on Girdles.

For the girl equestrienne who is following the accepted custom just now of riding astride the very latest habit shows the divided skirt buttoning in panel fashion down the front and topped by a loose pony jacket. This suit appears in rich, deep hues of green and blue cheviot, while thin black serge showing a hair line stripe of white is the material which is considered very smart.

Chiffon bows and plaitings and small cut steel buckles trim many of the dressy girdles. Narrow black velvet or satin ribbon about a quarter of an inch wide is also used.

A stunning linen dress is of tan in a soft biscent shade. The skirt, overskirt and bodice are scalloped and embroidered in white thread.

Not only linen gowns, but those of pongee and voile, are made stunning by the use of embroidery. One beauty in that rare new shade of blue which is neither dark nor light had its Eton jacket embroidered heavily in a typical braiding pattern. Another of the soft wood brown—a pongee—was embroidered freely with tiny vines, all in the same exquisite shade.

Embroidered pumps match the costumes trimmed in this way. White is the most popular of the colors, although there are many fascinating slippers in pale shades.

The blouse illustrated is carried out in a pale tone of green crape. It is plaited about the round neck and over the shoulders and encircled by two bands of Irish lace. The sleeve bracelets, as the French call the bands at the ends of short sleeves, are of the ecrú lace. JUDIC CHOLLET.

FACTS AND FANCIES.

Jet Combs and Collars a Summer Fancy—Colored Shoes—Motor Hat.

Jet is very fashionable this summer, especially for ornaments. A charming high comb of the Spanish type is inset with brilliant, and another attractive form is a jet dog collar crossed with bars of diamonds or pearls.

There is a new motor hat that is adorably light and small. Once fastened on it would defy the whole of Hans Andersen's cavern of winds. In shape it is nothing more than a very small cocked hat, a tiny Napoleon shape, in clip with a soft glaze rosette at each point. The most acutely Gibsonian headdress rises uncrowned in front of it, and the motor veil drapes over it neatly.

Colored shoes, with stockings to match, have superseded black shoes. It would look ugly even with a dark dress to wear black stockings and shoes. The little varnished shoe with paste buckles may be tolerated, but the stocking must be of some bright color.

The more varieties of trimming and the more varied the designs the smarter is the little linen bolero suit. Imitation Irish lace renaissance braid, embroidered motifs combined with net and valenciennes lace are used on the same garment.

The little girl's dress seen in the picture is attractively carried out in white mull and English embroidery. The full skirt is tucked between bands of the embroidery. And the bloused waist has bands and neck trimming of the same embroidery. JUDIC CHOLLET.

LA CROSSE LOSES A HARD BATTLE YESTERDAY

FREEPORT MAKES TWO IN THE TENTH

Teams' Standings.	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Freeport	46	25	.648
La Crosse	44	27	.611
Green Bay	37	34	.521
Oshkosh	34	36	.486
Eau Claire	27	46	.369
Wausau	26	47	.356

The champs dropped a game to Freeport yesterday after a hard fought ten inning game, the Freeporters running in two scores in the tenth inning, making the final score 6 to 8. Both Scott and Bubser were hit hard, the former being driven out of the box, but La Crosse worked in errors where they counted most, and lost. Score: R. H. E. Freeport 10 2 0 0 3 0 0 0 2-8 9 4. La Crosse 0 0 2 2 0 2 0 0 0 0-6 10 3. Batteries—Scott, Warhop and Erickson; Bubser and Killian.

The excursion to Lansing yesterday took many out of the city who ordinarily attend the games, but the crowd was a fair sized one.

The present series is one of the most critical of the season and lovers of baseball are having their fill of "A-1" stuff. Eau Claire, 6; Oshkosh, 3. Oshkosh, Wis., July 31.—The second game of the Oshkosh-Eau Claire series went to Eau Claire by a score of 6 to 3, but a protest has been lodged by Oshkosh. Mohr of Oshkosh, and Fiske of Eau Claire, were umpiring. In the ninth inning, during a batting rally, Fiske called Dolan out at third. The Oshkosh contention is that Dolan was not out and that Fiske had no business to call him out, as he was at that time calling balls and strikes. Score: R. H. E. Oshkosh 10 1 0 0 0 0 0 1-3 8 3. Eau Claire 0 0 1 1 0 1 0 0 3-6 9 2. Batteries—Stadler and Dolan; Scopec, Malven and Asmusen.

Green Bay, 7; Wausau, 4. WAUSAU, Wis., July 31.—Green Bay won from Wausau yesterday in a walk. Score: R. H. E. Green Bay 0 0 0 1 2 2 0 1 1-7 13 3. Wausau 0 0 0 2 0 0 2 0 0-4 6 3. Batteries—Gormley and Lannon; Miller and Troch.

RECORD BREAKING AUTOMOBILE TIME

NEW YORK, July 30.—Edward L. Norton, a broker, recently beat Harry K. Vintut, an owner of race horses, $1,000 that no man about town out of training could ride 100 miles in twenty-four hours. Vintut had a lot of horses sent down to Belmont park on Saturday and he followed in the evening with a party of friends. He started on his ride at 4:40 this morning. Norton sat on the veranda of the clubhouse and watched him. Vintut used four western bred polo ponies and a horse for the ride. He used an English saddle and mounted and dismounted without assistance. When he retired from the track for breakfast at 6:50 he had covered twenty-five and one-half miles.

He resumed riding at 8:10, and by 12:45 had covered an additional forty-three and one-half miles. He had done this in four hours and twenty-five minutes, or an average of six and one-fifth minutes to the mile. Vintut was delayed because a thunder storm came up and the rain soaked the track, and it was 3:40 when he resumed his ride. The horse and ponies showed signs of being tired during the last trip, but at 5:30 he completed the journey, going an extra half mile.

Vintut had made the journey in twelve hours and forty-eight minutes, including rests. The actual time on the track was nine hours and twenty-three minutes. He showed no signs of being exhausted.

DIETZ IS A MAN OF REFINEMENT & KNOWLEDGE

HIS WIFE WAS ONCE A SCHOOL TEACHER

EAU CLAIRE, Wis., July 31.—A correspondent has just returned from an expedition to John Dietz's home after stopping off at many of the towns on the way. At nearly every place he found strong Dietz sentiment, which, if put to the test by another attempt to capture him might lead to armed parties being organized to defend Dietz.

On Wednesday the correspondent was informed at Winter that a party of militia had left Hayward Monday night for Dietz's place. He hastened through the tract of wild country, and with a boy as a guide reached the Dietz home about 5 o'clock.

The house appeared deserted but a nearer approach disclosed children's faces at one window. No one replied to shouts so we forded the Thornapple river and the boy, who had made almost daily trips to Dietz's home for butter, milk and eggs, went to tell Dietz who was approaching. Dietz would not believe him and thought I was an officer, so I determined to go up with the boy a safe distance behind in case Dietz opened fire.

Going around the house I saw Dietz standing in the door and, telling him who I was, extended my hand, which he grasped.

He then invited me in out of the rain and after a close cross-examination allowed me to remain with him all night and till noon next day (Thursday). His whole history was again gone over and particularly the incidents of the late shooting. He laid the blame for all his troubles on the lumber company.

Mr. Dietz has a sandy complexion, light blue eyes, and an open, pleasant countenance. He is just in the prime of life, now being 45 years of age. His wife is also a pleasant person to meet, but takes their troubles, if anything, a little more seriously than Mr. Dietz. She was at one time a school teacher in Barron county.

She takes much pride in her family, and in spite of the rude surroundings there is an air of refinement about the home. They have an organ which the girls play, and also a nice little library of books—many of which are law books that Mr. Dietz has made a deep study of.

That Mr. Dietz is an intelligent man and one who keeps well abreast of the times was shown by his intimate knowledge of the beef trust investigation, Upton Sinclair's book and conditions in Russia. Happenings of late which he had not heard of he took a deep interest in, when I spoke of them.
